Subject: Stripe / GiveSendGo Updates

Hi Chris, Dan and Olivia,

Thanks again for your time earlier this week, really appreciate the open discussion on sensitive and evolving topics.

I wanted to get an update from Stripe following Court Order from the Superior Court of Justice following an application from the Ontario Government, freezing all monetary donations to the Freedom Convoy or Adopt-A-Trucker campaign pages on the GiveSendGo platform. And while we don't take everything posted on Twitter seriously, the comments from GiveSendGo's Twitter account do raise a question about the platforms willingness to follow legal orders ("Know this! Canada has absolutely ZERO jurisdiction over how we manage our funds here at GiveSendGo,"; "All funds for EVERY campaign on GiveSendGo flow directly to the recipients of those campaigns, not least of which is The Freedom Convoy campaign.").

I would appreciate an update on Stripe's position in supporting (by both collections and payouts) and intended course of action for: (i) the specific campaigns noted in the legal order; (ii) other crowdfunding platform campaigns where Stripe would have reasonable expectation proceeds were in support of the Freedom Convoy (I acknowledge these are not currently covered under the legal order); (iii) the GiveSendGo platform (I acknowledge other campaigns are not covered under the legal order).

With respect to specific transactions under the targeted campaigns, can you please advise: (i) amount currently held by Stripe; (ii) confirmation no proceeds have or will be distributed since the court order was issued; (iii) any relevant updates in your discussions with GiveSendGo.

We are open to getting on a call this morning to discuss if preferred.

Thanks,

Graham Carroll
